ASIAN/HIST 422

Asian American Experiences

This course examines the experiences of Asian/Pacific Islander Americans to include immigration, colonialism, imperialism, exclusion, citizenship, labor, family, community, gender, popular culture, refugees, multi-racial tensions, globalization, and resistance.

Class Time: Tuesdays and Thursdays from 9:30-10:45am
Class Location: LSS 248
Instructor: Dr. Chiou-Ling Yeh
Units: 3
*Fulfills GE Ethnic Studies requirement