HIST 548
Race and Ethnicity in U.S. History

This course explores race and ethnicity in America from the colonial period through the twentieth century to include historical construction of identity, colonization, slavery, state formation, labor, immigration, politics of whiteness, and applicability of black/white binary of a multiethnic society. The course includes APIDA experiences.

Class Time: Tuesdays and Thursdays from 11:00-12:15pm
Class Location: SH 119
Instructor: Professor Chiou-Ling Yeh
Units: 3
*Must have upper division or graduate standing.